Aluminum Ladders

Chiao Teng Hsin Enterprises Co., Ltd.

While expanding its sales territory from the domestic to the international market, Chiao Teng Hsin insisted on the principle of “safety first”. Since aluminum alloy ladders are an everyday tool, Chiao Teng Hsin believes that making top quality products and ensuring the safety of customers are its responsibility and duty. One of the company’s most popular products is the Professional Fiberglass Step Ladder EN131. It can withstand up to 150kg of loading as approved by SGS.

The Professional Fiberglass Step Ladder EN131 is durable, non-conductive, has a wide 80mm FRP step, a super tough black ABS top that is optimized for placing tools, and four non-slip rubber feet. The EN131 is 100% made in Taiwan. OEM is available.
